Bactiguard continues cooperation with the Swedish counties Kronoberg and Blekinge

Bactiguard has won a tender for urinary catheters covering the two Swedish counties Kronoberg and Blekinge. The contract is an extension of the previous agreement for 2 (+2) years which enable healthcare providers to purchase Bactiguard anti-infective urinary catheters.

"This specific region has been using our products since 2012 and has now recently decided to continue the use of our catheters also during the next contract period. We have a very good cooperation and welcome their renewed trust in us delivering infection prevention to the region," says Nina Nilsson, Director of Marketing at Bactiguard. She continues:

"The need to include anti-infective products in the procurement range is constantly increasing. From October 1 onwards, our products will be available in Halland Region and from November 1 in the Värmland County Council. In addition to the Kronoberg Region and Blekinge County Council, our products have also been procured by Kalmar County Council."

About Bactiguard

Bactiguard is a Swedish medtech company with a global presence, offering a solution that prevents healthcare associated infections caused by medical devices. By preventing infections, we contribute to a reduced use of antibiotics and the spread of multi-resistant bacteria, which is a growing problem worldwide. We save lives, increase patient safety and significantly reduce the cost for the healthcare and society. Our technology is well-proven, safe and tissue friendly and consist of a thin layer of noble metals that prevents bacterial growth. The coating can be applied on almost all medical devices. Bactiguard-coated urinary catheters are market leading in the US and Japan and the company has also its own product portfolio consisting of Foley catheters, central venous catheters and endotracheal tubes. Bactiguard is a growth company, focused on markets in Europe, Middle East, Asia and Latin America. The company has about 60 employees worldwide, mainly at the headquarters in Stockholm and the production facility in Malaysia and is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm.
